DESIGN MINDED

Whether designed as a spa-like sanctuary, modern retreat, ultra-glamorous getaway or elegant haven with a touch of Old World charm, the bathroom is a personal space that should exude comfort and allow for total relaxation, all while reflecting individual style. From sinks to showers and tubs to tiles, LUXE takes a look at the season's most desirable elements that define the ultimate bathroom.

MODERN

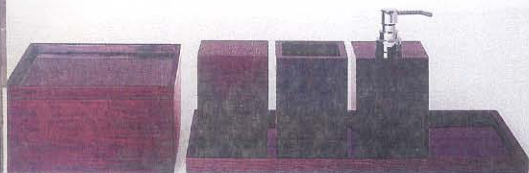

Today's modern bathrooms lean towards a sleek, streamlined design. "We're seeing elements like iridescent glass mosaic tile in earth tones, clean whites and bright blues," says Ann-Britt Malden, marketing and sales director of Hakatai Enterprises. No longer reserved just for the kitchen or living room, high-tech appliances like plasma televisions outfitted with mirrors that vanish when turned off, DVD players hidden in vanities and long-lasting LED light tiles, like those from Villeroy & Boch, have made their way into the bathroom. Indeed, high-end tech toys coupled with modern design elements make for the ultimate modern bathroom.

FENG-SHUI

Based upon the ancient Chinese practice of placement and arrangement of space to achieve harmony within an environment, Feng-Shui-inspired bathrooms evoke a well-balanced feeling. Customize this space with a shower tiled in an organic material, like large-format, spa-sized slate tiles accessorized with multiple showerheads and body sprays. "Must-haves in today's bathrooms are rainshower showerheads, body sprays, oversized tubs, spa showers and big water flow to create a peaceful space that is all about well-being," says Judy Riley, vice president of design for Moen. Teak and bamboo accessories and even eco-friendly wallpaper add a warm touch.
